International Architecture Competition

Progressive Prize Money

Progressive Prize Money Structure

Purpose

In the Progressive Pricing System, the prizes will grow as more people join the competition. This makes it more exciting for people to participate and ensures that the prizes fairly match the efforts and success of each person who takes part. This is especially important for students who want to showcase their design skills and compete with their peers.

This promotes fairness and equity by ensuring that the prize money is distributed in a manner that reflects the level of competition and demand. This helps to eliminate any disparities and ensures that the prize money is divided equitably among all the participants.

Individual Registration

Participants can register individually or as a team of up to three individuals. The registration fee is INR 1500 or 1700 or 1900 per individual or team of three individuals.

Group Registration

A group must consist of four teams.

The registration fee is 4800 rupees per group.
